Backbone State Park voted best family-friendly fishing spot in Iowa

Backbone State Park earned the Mom-Approved Seal in a recent nationwide survey facilitated by the Recreational Boating and Fishing Foundation (RBFF), a national nonprofit geared toward increasing participation in recreational fishing and boating.

Thousands of moms picked their favorite fishing spot in their state that has everything a family needs to experience the great outdoors – play areas and family-friendly amenities, picnic areas, safe water and boat access and of course, plenty of fish to catch.

RBFF is taking votes to narrow the list of 50 family-friendly hot spots down to the top 10.

Visit the RBFF website to vote for Backbone State Park (scroll down to Iowa) and learn more about the sweepstakes to win a family fishing/boating trip in Florida. You can vote daily through June 29.
